NOTICE

Counsel are reminded that the policy of this court is that lawyers who represent clients in matrimonial dissolution actions have a special responsibility for full and fair disclosure (to each other and the court) for a searching dialogue about all of the facts that materially affect the client's rights and interests. See Mitchell v. Mitchell, 194 Conn. 312, 322 (1984).

NOTICE TO COUNSEL AND PRO SE PARTIES
STATUS CALL

The cases listed below are on the trial list and have been reported as limited contested or contested and as requiring a trial. All counsel and pro se parties are ordered to attend a status conference on the date indicated below at 9:15 a.m. at the Norwich Judicial District Courthouse, One Courthouse Square, Room 262, Norwich.

On said date and time, counsel and pro se parties, as applicable, shall present a joint trial management report which shall state:

(Notice Continued on Last Column)

---

NOTICE (continued from Column 1)

(1) Whether the case is ready for trial, and the estimated length of trial.

(2) A list of the issues in dispute.

(3) Whether the parties have exchanged current: financial affidavits, child support guideline worksheets, appraisals of real or personal property, or retirement/pension benefit plans, and supporting benefit statements, tax returns and proposed written orders.

(4) The status of any family relations referral, and if a report and recommendation has been issued, whether it requires updating.

(5) The date the case was pretried, the names of the judge or special masters who conducted the pretrial, and whether a further pretrial conference would be of assistance.

(6) Whether all discovery has been completed, and if not, a statement of the specific discovery still sought.

(7) A list of exhibits, including medical or psychiatric reports and the like, if applicable, reasonably expected to be introduced and a list of witnesses, both lay and expert, reasonably expected to be called.

(8) Whether any anticipated impediments to the commencement of trial exist, and if so, the nature thereof.

There will be no off markings. THE STATUS OF THE CASE MUST BE REPORTED AS ABOVE OR SUCH CASE WILL BE SUBJECT TO DISMISSAL OR OTHER SANCTION.
